

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF COBB-MARIETTA

Women building better communities

JANET J. STREET SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Award:

One $1,000.00 Scholarship

The Junior League of Cobb-Marietta Janet J. Street Scholarship is intended to recognize and reward one young woman in the Cobb-Marietta Community each academic year for her exceptional service to the community in making a difference in the lives of others. The scholarship is named after Janet J. Street, founder and former CEO of Girls' Inc. of Greater Atlanta and past president of the Junior League of Cobb-Marietta (JLCM). Through her commitment to inspire girls to be strong, smart and bold, Janet exemplifies the ideals of community service and dedication that all members of the Junior League of Cobb-Marietta strive to achieve.

Requirements:

- Applicant must CURRENTLY be a student enrolled in a Cobb County, Georgia Public or Private School or be home schooled and reside in Cobb County, Georgia.
- Applicant must be involved in community activities of a philanthropic nature. Specifically, the scholarship committee is looking for applicants involved in organizations that are designed to help others improve the quality of their life.
